Altcoins are coins that were created after Bitcoin and have established themselves as better alternatives for the base coin! So, technically, any cryptocurrency other than Bitcoin is an altcoin, and they account for over 40% of the total cryptocurrency market, according to Investopedia. There are currently over 9,000 altcoins in the market today.

The task of these nodes is, as with full nodes, is to create and validate blocks, while at the same time distributing information to users on the network. All participants, not chosen to be an authority node, will be running lightweight nodes (light nodes) which depend on the broadcasted data to be able to operate on the blockchain.
