IMO, kraken is the best exchange. It's the mix of many factors: They don't have as many altcoins as Binance but still many, they offer staking for some coins (although not many and not the best rates), they are a registered company in a country with a solid legal system and with real offices and known people (unfortunately that means you need to do their terrible KYC process), you can buy .

Your long-term crypto investment involves maintaining it for a period based on your investing goals. Typically, long-term investors hold their investments for several years or decades to grow their returns. So, if you believe blockchain-based technology will explode in the future, investing in crypto for the long term can be a great option.

These huge exchanges have allowed many naive investors and less tech savvy investors invest into the cryptocurrency market like never before. I can appreciate that. Any investor can. Its not a perfect system, but its also a relatively NEW system. Banks have been around for a very long time.

But a better way to gain exposure to the sector is to invest in companies -- even bigger, more established companies -- that benefit from blockchain and crypto asset uptake.

It is pretty safe probably. But the beauty of bitcoin is that you can just store it yourself. You have to do some research to do that more safely than Coinbase though. Both storing bitcoin on exchanges and by yourself involves risks, it has been gone wrong countless of times.
