Coinbase announced on November 24, 2020 that it would no longer offer margin trading to investors. This came as a result due to a change in regulation from the Commodity Futures Trading Commission. They stated the following:

The Batdoge Project will be a community-driven, governance token powered by Binance Smart Chain. We intend to keep investors included in the decision-making process throughout the life of the token and will take further suggestions for future growth, charity partnerships, brand ambassadorships, and more from our holders.

Double Bottom. A double bottom pattern is a bullish version of a double top. It's worth noting that both bottom prices don't need to line up perfectly, and wicks are frequently ignored when it's convenient. When looking at a candlestick chart, a wick is a brief price anomaly, and can often be safely omitted when charting price patterns.

When you create an order on Coinbase Pro, we check your buying power before the order is created. Once Margin Trading becomes unavailable, your buying power decreases and we thus might not be able to execute any orders that were already created. Will I still have access to reporting for Margin trades? You can access your previous trades (including Margin trades) via the Orders or Statements sections of your account.

Coinbase Pro disables margin trading. In response to new guidance from the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, we are disabling our margin trading product. Customers currently using margin trading will not be able to place new margin trades starting 2pm PT on November 25.
