In the U.S., penny stocks are defined as stock shares that trade for $5 each or less. They're generally thinly traded. This means they are traded infrequently and it's difficult to accurately price them. This can also make them difficult to sell. Sometimes unexpected companies can fit broadly into the penny-stock category.

Coinbase lied to me when saying they got request from me but they could not to prove it so far. For your information: if someone is stealing your money, he will never send any request because to get approval he must verify his location, 2FA phone, send a link for a LinkedIn account, send a Bank Statement and it takes about 2-4 days. I asked Coinbase send me all verifications for that request, but they could not provide me with any.
