IMO, kraken is the best exchange. It's the mix of many factors: They don't have as many altcoins as Binance but still many, they offer staking for some coins (although not many and not the best rates), they are a registered company in a country with a solid legal system and with real offices and known people (unfortunately that means you need to do their terrible KYC process), you can buy .

Coinbase is a U.S.-regulated cryptocurrency exchange that allows users to buy, sell, send, receive, and exchange altcoins via a web browser or mobile app. Binance is also an exchange, but it has.

In this period of crypto regulations and KYC verifications, choosing the right exchange for your needs is more and more important: So I decided to write a little guide about the pros and cons of the most and less known exchanges (also because I didn't see a proper list in this subreddit). If you want to let other people read this guide, consider upvoting (I worked a lot to create this post).
