If you have tried day trading or watched somebody else day trade, you already know the concepts are simple, but being successful at day trading is like walking a tightrope. If you watch somebody doing it they make it look easy, but when you try it, it seems nearly impossible. This is the experience most new day traders will go through.

A simple example would be, if a trader wanted to invest $100, they could buy 10 units of a stock that was priced at $10 (10 units x $10 = $100). It is important to never risk too much capital on one trade. Position size should be a set as a percentage of the total day trading budget (which might be anywhere from 2% to 10%, depending on the budget).

MY experience with UFX is much the same as most of the reviewers here. 95% of the brokers I was allocated to spent most of their time telling me the only way to make money was to continue to increase the amount in your account. They suggested I mortgaged my house, borrowed from my family or used my credit card.
