As of mid-2017, Coinbase was supporting translations in eight languages and operating in 32 countries, mostly in Europe and North America. However, as our international growth accelerated in 2018, our engineering team began facing technical limitations that would hinder our international strategy, thereby limiting our ability to make crypto accessible to all.

The task of these nodes is, as with full nodes, is to create and validate blocks, while at the same time distributing information to users on the network. All participants, not chosen to be an authority node, will be running lightweight nodes (light nodes) which depend on the broadcasted data to be able to operate on the blockchain.
